

NYSERDA

Flexible Technical Assistance (FlexTech)

nyserderda.ny.gov/flextech

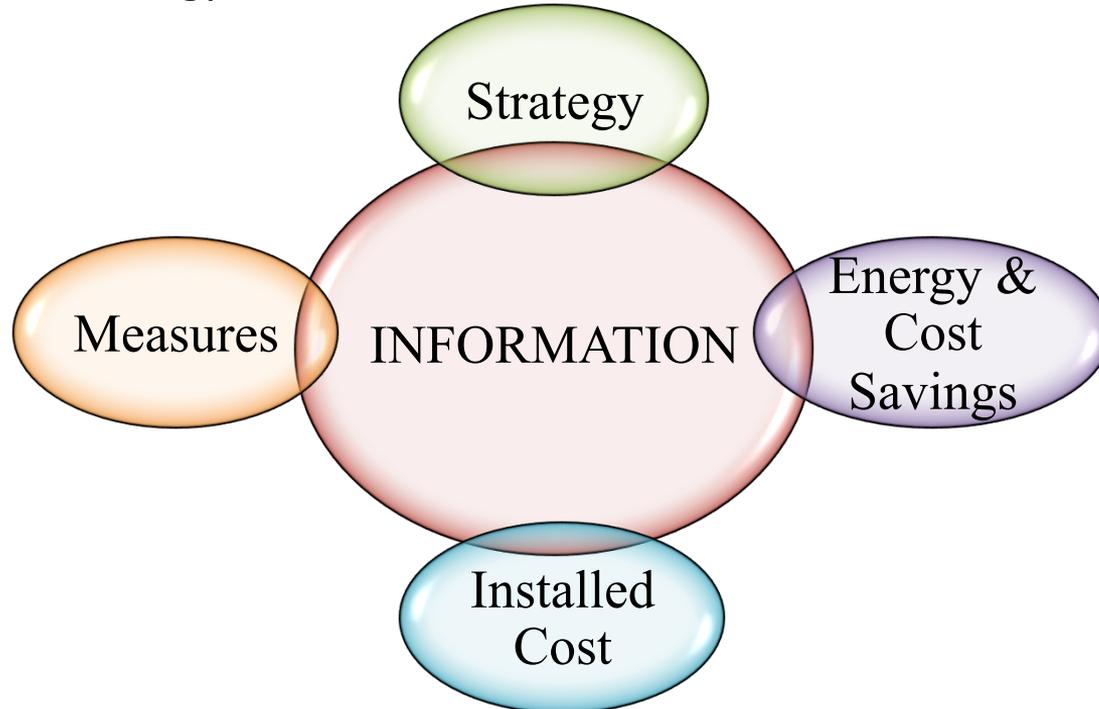

April 2016

Flexible Technical Assistance (FlexTech)

- Credible, objective technical assistance
- Continued funding at previous levels through 2017
- Commitment to support planning critical to achieve success

FlexTech: Objective

FlexTech seeks to deliver credible, objective information and technical assistance to help make informed clean energy investment decisions.

FlexTech: Overview

- Eligibility
 - Non-residential customers
 - Facility required to pay electric SBC
 - Existing building occupied for a minimum of 1 year
- Cost Share
 - 50/50 – eligible energy related measures/tasks
- Incentive Cap
 - $250,000 per project
 - 10% annual energy spend

Continued funding at previous levels through 2017

Commitment to support planning critical to achieve success

FlexTech: Study Categories

- Targeted Feasibility Studies
- Industrial & Process Efficiency
- Data Centers
- CHP

FlexTech: Project Initiation

- Consolidated Funding Application
- Consultant Selection
- Scope of Work & Attachment A-1

FlexTech: Project Initiation

- Customer chooses:
 - A NYSERDA FlexTech Consultant (40+ consultants available, list on website)
 - or
 - Their own independent service provider

FlexTech: Participation

Step	Description
1	Submit Consolidated Funding Application (CFA), Scope of Work, Attachment A-1
2	NYSERDA reviews application for program compliance and eligibility
3	Revised scope of work submitted incorporating NYSERDA comments
4	NYSERDA issues purchase order
5	Consultant conducts study
6	Consultant submits draft report to NYSERDA and customer for review
7	Consultant addresses comments/questions and submits final report
8	Project close out & payment

FlexTech: Program Information

Staff are available to assist you through the program process:

- Determining project eligibility
- Scope of work requirements
- Final report guidelines

Email: FlexTech@nyserda.ny.gov

Visit www.nyserda.ny.gov/FlexTech for the current solicitation.