

Come learn about the REDC Consolidated Funding Application Round 8 with $750 million available in NYS Funding

Mixed-use Development

In 2011, Governor Andrew Cuomo created ten Regional Economic Development Councils or REDCs as a bottom up approach to economic development. As part of this initiative the Governor also created the Consolidated Funding Application or CFA. A single online application that allows users to apply for funding from multiple state agencies once.

Innovation & Biotechnology

Join us on Monday, June 4, 2018 at 10:00am in the Town of Islip Town Hall Board Room, 655 Main Street, 2nd Floor, Islip, NY 11751 to hear from representatives of Empire State Development on the Consolidated Funding Application process, available funding programs and to answer any questions you may have.

Business expansions

For more information regarding the Consolidated Funding Application and additional informational events please go to <https://regionalcouncils.ny.gov/long-island> .

* Images above are from successful CFA projects from previous rounds.

Empire State Development