MOHAWK VALLEY REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL MAKES PITCH TO STATE

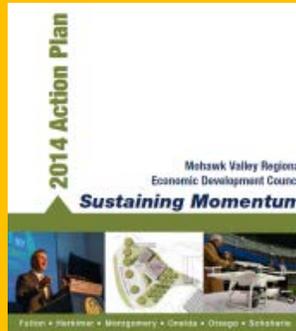

Regional Council in Albany Tuesday to argue case for continued investment

The Mohawk Valley Regional Economic Development Council (MVREDC) traveled to Albany on Tuesday, September 16th, to pitch the Mohawk Valley as the best investment in New York State. Building on the region's marked momentum from last year, the Mohawk Valley seeks a second Top Performer award in the statewide competition.

This year, the Mohawk Valley is concentrating investments in High-Tech, Downtown, Waterfront, Agribusiness, and Tourism, as a natural evolution of the core strategies proposed at the inception of the REDCs. Just one month ago, the MVREDC submitted the 2014 Action Plan, detailing the Council's accomplishments in advancing the strategies included in its five-year strategic plan. The report, which is entitled "Sustaining Momentum," describes the Council's significant achievements, and aggressive implementation agenda for 2014-15.
