

Mohawk Valley

	Regional totals	% of total in region	Independent Sector state totals
No. of Independent Sector institutions	5		145
Degree Productivity ¹
Bachelor & graduate degrees, Independent Sector	1,544	41%	127,073
Bachelor's in mathematics	50	68%	856
Bachelor's in physical sciences	48	56%	884
Economic Impact ²
Employees	4,263		360,158
Economic impact (millions)	$590		$54,296
Payroll (millions)	$215		$19,576
Capital construction (millions)	$39		$1,637
Student/visitor spending (millions)	$55		$3,925
Quality Measures
2010 National Merit Scholars entering college ³	2		355
U.S. News Top 50 Universities and Liberal Arts Colleges ⁴	1		13
Nobel Laureates ⁵	1		135
Proven Expertise
National Science Foundation FY2009 ⁶	$1,344,000		$3,009,877,000

Sources:

1. New York State Education Department, Office of Research and Information Services. Degrees granted are public and Independent Sector, 2008-09.
2. Center for Governmental Research, January 2011.
3. The National Merit Scholarship, <http://www.nationalmerit.org/nmsp.php#entryreq>
4. U.S. News university and college rankings, <http://colleges.usnews.rankingsandreviews.com/best-colleges>
5. Nobel Laureates through 2010.
6. National Science Foundation, College and University R&D FY2009, data file.

Independent Sector: Centers of Research, Innovation, and Economic Development Mohawk Valley

Institution	Center	Description	Category
Utica College	Leadership Institute	The Institute provides the private and non-profit sectors web-based programs for training.	Community and Workforce Development
Utica College	Mohawk Valley Center for Economic Education	The Center helps local districts implement the Economics America program by providing training for local teachers in kindergarten through senior high school in both economic content and pedagogy. The center's staff is also available to serve as consultants to school districts on curriculum development, needs assessment, and teaching strategies.	Community and Workforce Development
Utica College	Center for Identity Management and Information Protection	The Center is a research collaborative studying identity management, information sharing, and data protection. The goal is to influence policy, regulation, and legislation, working toward a more secure homeland.	School-based Center